

EVE Notes

I am so happy to announce that after some intense discussions with the EVE board; director, Peter Huston, and writer, Kelly Boyer Sagert, we have decided to move ahead to complete our documentary about Victoria Woodhull on our own. What this means is that we will not be actively seeking foundation grants, but will be using the funds from our murder mystery fundraiser from January of 2020 and counting on the support of all of you to help us make this film. (As you may remember, much of our funding for TRAIL MAGIC came from people who gave less than $100!) Of course, this means scaling back the scope of the project a bit, but it will allow us to move forward after having lost so much momentum during the COVID shut down. If you would like to help "make a movie", now's your chance! A donation form is included in this newsletter to send us a check or you can donate online with a credit card through PayPal at <http://www.edenvalleyenterprises.org/evedonate.htm> All donations are tax-deductible and greatly appreciated.

In the meantime, you can hear more about this gutsy gal at the Lorain Historical Society on Saturday, November 20, 2021 at 11 a.m. when we present the storytelling program, MADAM PRESIDENT — THE STORY OF VICTORIA WOODHULL. I hope you will join us at the Historical Society at 329 W. 10th St. in Lorain Ohio for that event. For more information or to purchase tickets ($5.00/person) call the Society at 440-245-2563 or visit them at www.lorainhistory.org

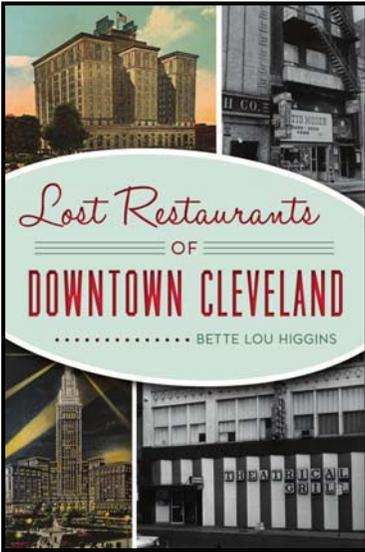

We're also looking forward to the premier of our new storytelling program about Cleveland Browns Hall-Of-Famer Dante Lavelli. HE JUST WANTED TO PLAY BALL: THE DANTE LAVELLI STORY will be presented on Thursday, October 14, 2021 at 7 p.m. for The Rocky River Historical Society at Beach School at 1101 Morewood Parkway in Rocky River Ohio (parking is off Detroit Rd.). It is FREE and open to the public. For more information, call 440-331-4614. We are also planning another presentation in December for the Italian American Museum of Cleveland, so be sure to check our calendar for information about that presentation when it becomes available.

All of us at EVE are looking forward to seeing everyone at a program again soon!

Enjoy the History of Everything from Diners to Fine Dining in this New Book

From humble and hungry beginnings, the city of Cleveland grew over centuries until it boasted a dizzying array of gustatory choices. City dwellers and travelers alike flocked to the eateries at Public Square and Terminal Tower, including the Fred Harvey restaurants with their famous Harvey Girls. A single block-long street, Short Vincent featured the Theatrical Grille, the longest-running jazz joint in the area. The walls of Otto Moser's were a veritable Hollywood roll call, and the New York Spaghetti House offered a complete dining and aesthetic experience. Fill your cup with the libation of your choice, grab a snack and join author Bette Lou Higgins on a historical tour of the restaurants that kept Clevelanders fed.

Available September 27, 2021

Watch for a companion storytelling program to this book which should be ready in 2022. In the meantime, you'll be able to find current information for upcoming book signings on our website at:
